

(Continued from Page Four.)

The Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Judd returned here from a business trip to the first of the week—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tate of Greensboro were guests at George Cook's over Sunday—R. M. Hubbard leaves Thursday on a 10 days' trip to Washington, D. C.—L. C. Udall arrived home from the last of the week—Edwin Franklin of Frankmont, N. H., is a business visitor in town.—F. A. Symond and W. S. Silloway were in Montpelier Monday.—The Rev. Paul Thatcher and family of Leicester arrived Saturday—Mr. Thatcher and family were in town on the pastor of the Pentacostal Church—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dunham of Cabot passed Sunday at A. W. Boardman's—Moses Besau has charge of the farm work at Cogswell and Mudgett's—William H. Hunkeler and his family were on the week the first of the week—Frank Whipple moved from Hunkeler's ten-

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Church held its regular meeting with Mrs. H. J. Hamilton presiding, at 7 o'clock on Friday. The topic was "The Hidden Lesson," and the leader, Mrs. Minnie Miller. Quotations from the "Study Lesson," "Our Neighbors in Japan" and "A Backward Glance," were read by Mrs. Fletcher; "The Hour to Live" was given by Mrs. G. F. Crawford; "Shares from Japan," leaflet, was read by Mrs. R. H. Slack; song, Mrs. Smithers; "Reaching the Soul, the Body, and the Mind," Mrs. N. N. Morse; a leaflet, read by Mrs. Hamilton; "Road to End," Mrs. E. E. Copeland; and "The Missionary Program." A letter from Mrs. M. T. Titus of Bilston, India, to Mrs. Miller was read by the secretary. Arrangements have been made to have Mrs. Barber, a returned missionary, now Jubilee supervisor of the New England branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, be present the evening of May 1. The district delegates were elected to attend the district meeting to be held in Northfield; Mrs. N. N. Morse and Mrs. R. H. Slack; alternates, Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Hamilton. At a former meeting the members presented a pin, the emblem of the auxiliary, to Mrs. G. F. Crawford. Gaylord went to Raymond, N. H., on Monday, having been called by his

Mrs. O. A. Annis is visiting her daughter, Miss Ruth Annis, who is teaching in Brandon, and also friends in Burlington.—Mrs. George E. Lewis has returned from Georgetown, Ga., where he has been in the West.—The funeral of the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawkins was held Sunday.—Mrs. Arline Vermillion is at the home of her father, E. B. Hammond, for a few weeks, having just come on from her home in Princeton, N. J.—The funeral of Mrs. Connie Randall Holden was held Friday afternoon.—Clive G. Seaver remains in a critical condition at his home on Main street.—The funeral of Mrs. M. J. Moller was held Sunday. It was not concluded, although the papers were drawn.—Henry Molla of Boston is clerking in the fruit store of R. and A. Molla and intends to remain during the summer.—Hollis C. Blair has withdrawn from the present season's turpentine business, which for some years

Hill cemetery.—Mrs. C. M. Carpenter spent Saturday in Burlington.—C. M. Carpenter is in Burlington on business Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lester McIntire have returned from a mining trip and will reside in the Gonyea house on River street.—Emma Knowlton has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, where she will spend the summer with her sister.—Mrs. Thomas went Saturday to Wilbraham, Mass., to visit for a few days.—Several of the men of the town, Horace Thomas, Miss Tull Sprague with her friend, Miss Nell Pemberton of Charleston, Va., who have been the guests of Mrs. Allen Sprague for a few days, have returned to New Bedford.—The Rev. Mr. George A. Keer of the First Baptist Church has accepted an invitation to give the Memorial day address before the Ethel Memorial Post, G. A. R., of Vergennes on Memorial day. The Rev. Mr. Keer has also accepted an invitation to give the Memorial day address before the Vergennes Post, G. A. R., of Vergennes.

A bill of complaint has been filed with the county clerk by the Consolidated Quarry company of Barre against the Lowe-Mercer Granite company and

N. Roberson Saturday was well attended and good sales were made.—E. M. Turner has bought the N. N. Roberson farm.—Mrs. Ruth Newcomb and Master Drew went Sunday to Waits.

Chicago, May 10.—A new record price for May was set to-day for choice cattle at the Chicago stock yards when Armour & Co. paid $19.25 a hundred pounds for a carload of Angus yearlings. Buyers predicted that because of the failure of the Iowa corn crop last year and the war demands No. 1 cattle may bring $12 a hundred pounds within a few weeks.